

Security, Membership, and ProfilesObjectives

After completing the assigned readings and exercises, you should understand:

1. How the ASP.NET security model works
2. The difference between authentication and authorization
3. How to enable a Web application for forms authentication
4. How to restrict access to specific files
5. How to use the ASP.NET membership provider
6. How to create users and roles for a Web application
7. How to use ASP.NET security controls
8. How to use the ASP.NET profile provider

Readings/Materials (to be read BEFORE class)

- MacDonald Chapters 19, 20, 21

Assignment(s)

- Complete the code repository exercises associated with this module
 - Instructions
- Complete readings for next class period (see course calendar)